

Certification Mark

Rules Governing the use of the Certification Marks

When successfully certified by MYCO2, organisations shall be permitted to use logos issued by MY CO2 Certification Sdn Bhd for use on their stationery and associated literature. The following rules shall be applied; failure to comply with the requirements will result in non-conformances being raised against the organisation and can lead to suspension and even legal action.

The certification mark is used as part of a set.

- The certification mark shows that the firm has been certificated by MYCO2 to ISO 9001, ISO 45001, ISO 22000, MS 1480 and MS1514.
- The accreditation mark shows that the certification was accredited by STANDARD MALAYSIA (only applied to ISO 9001, ISO 22000, ISO 45001, MS 1480 and MS1514).

The range of logos that may be used, as appropriate, are as follows:

of xxxxx, accredited by Department of Standard Malaysia (DSM)". [Note: *EMS (ISO 14001:2015) was not accredited by Department of Standard Malaysia (DSM).]

- Not make or permit the use of a certification document or any part thereof in a misleading manner.
- Upon suspension or withdrawal of its certification, discontinue the use of all advertising matter that contains reference to certification, as directed by MYCO2 Certification.
- Amend all advertising matter when the scope of certification has been reduced.
- Not allow reference to its management system certification to be used in such a way as to imply that the certification body certifies a product (including service) or process.
- Not imply that the certification applies to activities that are outside the scope of certification.
- Not use its certification in such a manner that would bring MY CO2 Certification or the certification system into disrepute and lose public trust.
- Not use the marks on laboratory tests, calibration or inspection reports, as such reports are deemed to be products in this context.

MY CO2 Certification shall take any action necessary to deal with incorrect references to certification status or misleading use of certification documents, marks or audit reports. Such action may include publication of the transgression and, if necessary, legal action.

After suspension, withdrawal or cancellation of certification, any organisation found to be using the certification marks without authority shall be charged the equivalent to the fees that would have been paid to MY CO2 Certification from the period of suspension, withdrawal or cancellation to discovery. This money may be used to publicise the transgression and, if necessary, legal action.
